TRADERS FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How do I apply to be a trader at Galway International Arts Festival?

Galway International Arts Festival (GIAF) works with independent traders in its Festival Garden and at the GIAF Heineken Big Top. If you're interested in trading, you can submit a Traders Application Form through our website, along with a signed and dated copy of the Traders Checklist & Conditions and the Sustainability Policy.

Each application is assessed on its own merit; therefore, we encourage applicants to provide as much information as possible, including photographs of pitches and products. If your application is successful and all required documents are submitted, the Traders Manager will issue a contract and be available to address any further questions. A payment schedule will also be arranged.

Please refer to the documents on the GIAF website for further details on applying and trading at the festival. Due to the high volume of applications, we are unable to accommodate all traders who apply.

What kind of space do traders receive at the Festival?

GIAF has limited space available for traders. The Festival will provide a small number of 3m x 3m marquees as part of a flower wall. There is very limited space for vans. Pitches are not allocated on a first-come, first-served basis but will be assigned at the discretion of the Traders Manager.

When completing your application, please ensure that stall and pitch sizes are accurate. You must provide four measurements: stall width and depth, as well as pitch width and depth. Your stall size should include your trading structure and any additional kitchen or preparation areas. Due to space constraints, you may not receive the exact space requested. If applying with a van, you must upload an image of it when completing your application form.

What does GIAF look for in applicants?

Only food vendors are eligible to apply.

The presentation and appearance of a trader's stall are important, as are the goods being sold. We seek creative and aesthetically pleasing stalls that align with the Festival's ethos and offer high-quality food and products at fair prices. GIAF will design your signage artwork, with signage dimensions set at 2.8m wide x 0.4m high.

Sustainability is a key value of the Festival. All food must be served in disposable and compostable packaging. The rules regarding composting are strict, and non-compliance may result in being asked to leave the site and exclusion from future festivals. Even if a product is labelled as compostable, it may not meet our requirements. Down to Earth Materials is our approved wholesaler and can advise successful applicants if unsure.

What documentation do I need?
